

Handout 1

James is playing on the playground and another kid comes up to him and starts a fight. Before he knows it, they're both punching each other in the face and five teachers come to separate them and bring them to the Principal's office.

While hanging out with some friends from middle school one night, Alexis and her friends decide to start checking to see if any car doors have been left open and take things that they find inside the unlocked cars.

21-year-old Ross is on a date when he sees some guy looking at his date. He walks over to him and tells the guy to stop looking at his girlfriend. The man says that he isn't going to and Ross punches the guy many times. The other guy gets a broken jaw and needs 27 stitches.

Missy sees one of her friends in the bathroom at her middle school. The friend asks her to hold onto her cigarettes because the principal is watching her. Missy holds onto the cigarettes for her friend and her math teacher catches her with them.

16-year-old Carter runs out of the house because he's mad at his mom. He sees a car that's running in the gas station parking lot, so he jumps in and takes it for a ride. The owner reports the car as stolen and the cops chase him down until he stops.

30-year-old Mike has been drinking alcohol all night. When his wife comes home he gets mad at her because she has been gone for a long time and he doesn't know where she was at. He becomes upset and throws her against the wall. She calls the police. They show up at Mike's house.

12-year-old Kristina's mom made spaghetti for supper. Kristina says, "Ugh...I hate spaghetti and throws the plate of spaghetti against the wall."

14-year-old Jaina has refused to go to school every day for the last month. Her mom tries everything but can't get her to agree to go to school. Jaina's mom receives a letter in the mail that she is truant.

25-year-old Allison found a credit card at the mall. She went to one store to see if it still worked and she bought a pair of jeans. When she learned that it worked, she went home and bought a bunch of new clothes and stuff online.

9-year-old Angela is really upset with her best friend. She goes onto Facebook and posts mean, embarrassing and fake messages about her friend to try to embarrass her.

15-year-old Jackie sneaks out of her room at night to hang out with her boyfriend. She makes it safely to his house almost every night, but one night, she gets caught by a police officer.

30-year-old Travis takes just a few dollars each week out of the cash drawer at his work. After doing this for a year, Travis has taken $2000, which is great for him because he really needed the money and not bad for the business because the business makes over $100,000 every year. He thinks that no one will miss that $2000.

7-year-old Natalie gets upset when her teacher tells her that she didn't do her math assignment right. She runs out of the classroom and goes out the front door. After teachers and other school staff spend 30 minutes chasing after her, they have to call the police to help find her.

13-year-old Adam was playing basketball at the park with kids from school. One kid says that he has some pot for Adam. Adam says he doesn't want any. A few minutes later, the cops show up and they group all of the kids together, go through their bags and find the pot.

27-year-old Eric is on probation after being in jail. His probation officer comes to his house and finds a bag that tested positive for drugs. Eric swears that he doesn't know where he got it and that he isn't using drugs.

On a field trip, 9-year-old Jesse dares Abby to kiss him on the back of the bus. Abby says "No" and Jesse calls her a chicken. So Abby decides to just do it and they both get caught by one of the chaperones.

12-year-old Amy goes to a party where there's alcohol. She doesn't feel comfortable drinking, but people make fun of her for not drinking. So she drinks one beer. Later that night, the cops show up at the party and give all the kids breathalyzers.

21-year-old Kathy has been selling her prescription medication to other people because she needs some extra money. One day, she sells her medications to an undercover cop.