

The Media and Prison

Even though you might have a parent in prison, many of our ideas about what prison is really like come from television or the movies.

- Name some movies or television shows that are about prison or prison life.

- Which ones seem realistic?

- What are some of the prison problems that movies and TV shows deal with?

- If you could make a movie about prison life, what would you include?

- Have you talked to your parent or family member about what their real prison experience is like?
